11 B. The Parties stipulate that the Court has jurisdiction over the Parties and subject matter

2 legal damages, including punitive damages and civil contempt.

3 II. PERMANENT INJUNCTION

4 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that under Section 17 of the 5 FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 217, Defendants, their officers, agents, servants, and employees, and all those
6 in active concert or participation with Defendants or acting on their behalf or at their direction, are 7 permanently enjoined and restrained from violating the FLSA, including as provided below:

8 1. Defendants shall not, contrary to Section 15(a)(3) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §
9 215(a)(3), take any action to deter employees from asserting their rights under the FLSA or interfere
10 with any U.S. Department of Labor investigation of FLSA violations. Defendants, their officers,
11 agents, servants, and employees shall not in any way retaliate or take any adverse employment action
12 or threaten or imply that adverse action will be taken against any employee as a result of that 13 employee exercising or asserting their rights under the FLSA;

14 2. Defendants shall not, contrary to Section 15(a)(3) and Section 11(a) of the FLSA, 29
15 U.S.C. §§ 215(a)(3) and 211(a), commit any of the following:

19 to have cooperated with a U.S. Department of Labor investigation or litigation;

20 b. threaten to contact or contact immigration authorities; indicate another will

24 U.S. Department of Labor investigation or litigation;

25 c. prevent any of Defendants' employees from speaking to representatives of

5 FLSA, less than time and one half the employees' regular rate for hours worked in excess of 40
6 hours in a workweek;

7 4. Defendants shall not, contrary to Section 3(m)(2)(B) and Section 16(e)(2) of the 8 FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 203(m)(2)(B) and 216(e)(2), keep tips received by its employees, including

10 5. Defendant shall not, contrary to Section 11(c) and Section 15(a)(5) of the FLSA, 29
11 U.S.C. §§ 211(c) and 215(a)(5), fail to make, keep, and preserve accurate records of the wages,
12 and hours worked of each and every employee who performs any work for Defendants.
13 Defendants shall maintain a time system that accurately records all hours worked by employees,
14 including when employees clocked in and out, as well as a computation of all regular hours and 15 overtime hours worked in a day. To ensure compliance with this provision, Defendants shall:

16 a. Use a time clock system at each restaurant and ensure that each employee
17 uses the system to accurately record the time the employee (i) begins work each day by

19 breaks of 20 minutes or more; (iii) clocking out when the work period ends;

24 for a period of three years from the day of the request or dispute;

4 days written notice, Defendants shall produce payroll and employee time records, in addition to

8 schedule a time with the Wage and Hour Division, U.S. Department of Labor, to read the notice
9 below to employees and collect contact information for employees on Exhibit A. The time shall be 10 scheduled before the restaurant is open for business and Defendants shall provide notice to the 11 employees in English and Spanish that they can attend the meeting and will be paid for their time
12 during the meeting. At the meeting, the Wage and Hour Division will verbally read the terms of this
